The Fred Hollows Foundation is an international development organisation working in 25 countries and has restored sight to more than two million people worldwide.

The Foundation believes in a world where no person is needlessly blind and Indigenous Australians exercise their right to good health. The Fred Hollows Foundation is as determined now as ever to end avoidable blindness. More than 32 million people in the world are blind but four out of five people who are blind don't need to be. The social and economic benefits of eliminating blindness are immense. For every $1 invested in preventing someone from going blind, at least $4 goes into the economy.
